

Two events not to be missed this week

This Thursday

The Festival of Small Halls is returning to the The Sedgwick Community Hall THIS Thursday 4 April at 6.30pm

Luke Owens, a local Bendigo artist joins our Festival of Small Halls lineup. Don't miss the opportunity to hear Luke along with TheOnce and John Flanagan.

Hot and cold drinks and snacks will be available for purchase throughout the evening. Soul M8s food truck will be serving up their delicious homemade soul food.

Book your tickets now online at smallhalls.iwannaticket.com.au, from the Mandurang Post Office, or if you are unable to book ahead at the door on Thursday evening.

Sedgwick Hall

Thursday 4 April 2019 at 6:30pm

On Saturday and Sunday

Rural State Fire Brigade Championships, hosted this year by District 2 in Bendigo

Tom Flood sports centre, 8:30am - 4pm Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday is senior teams, A, B and C division, Sunday is Juniors 11-13 and 13-15 years. About 60 teams competing.

Sedgwick seniors are in A division, which means top 18 in the state. The team has come up through juniors, C and B division. Sedgwick won two events at district championship at Campbells Creek last weekend. Juniors won the grand aggregate.

Jane Bunn from Channel 7 and Queen of Moomba is ambassador for the event.

Come along and cheer your local brigades on!

Fire restrictions still in force

Greater Bendigo fire restrictions do not end until 1 May 2019
